The world congress started with an opening address made by the IJJI Director General, saying that it would be an important occasion which demonstrates the progressive people's firm faith and will to advance invariably along the road indicated by the Juche idea even though the struggle for independence, justice and peace may be faced by trials and difficulties.

A congratulatory letter in the joint name of the C.C. of the WPK, the Presidium of the DPRK SPA, and the DPRK Cabinet was conveyed to those participants in the world congress by the President of the Presidium of the DPRK SPA.

It stressed: the IJJI, the authorized standing academic international organization has been founded and the broad people from all walks of life have joined the ranks of the Juche idea researchers for over 40 years since the first study organization of the Juche idea was formed on the African continent at the end of the 1960s. ...The Juche idea researchers shall oppose and reject aggressive moves of imperialists, encourage the people's struggle to defend independence of their countries and nations and make a positive contribution to consolidating the unity and cooperation with the anti-imperialist independent forces and the peace-defending forces.

It was followed by congratulatory speeches by Ahmed Tidjani Cisse, minister of Culture and Heritage of Guinea; Kaji Zafar Ahmed, former prime minister of Bangladesh; Rosanita Monteiro de Campos, vice-chairperson of the Party for Free Motherland of Brazil and Secretary Kim Ki Nam of the C.C. of the WPK.

Congratulatory messages from the circles of politics and academy in individual countries were read aloud.

The keynote report to the world congress stressed: as having respected First Secretary Kim Jong Un, the ideology and cause of President Kim Il Sung and the exploits of General Secretary Kim Jong Il will shine through centuries and victory and glory are in store for humankind that is advancing along the road of independence; it is an important demand of our era to study and disseminate the Juche idea in a more broad and profound manner.

The opening session was followed by plenary sessions on the afternoon of the same day and on the morning of the following day.

On behalf of regional and national Juche idea study groups some thirty Juche idea researchers made speeches there.

The closing session was held on the afternoon of April 13.

The world congress adopted the "Pyongyang Declaration of World Congress on Juche Idea" along with a letter addressed to First Secretary Kim Jong Un.

The Pyongyang Declaration concluded:

"The Juche idea founded by President Kim Il Sung and formulated by General Secretary Kim Jong Il is an immortal banner of the progressive people. The popular masses' struggle to build a new independent world under the banner of this idea shall surely win victory."

Those who took part in the world congress had an opportunity to be received by President Kim Yong Nam of the Presidium of the DPRK SPA at the Mansudae Assembly Hall on April 14.

In his address, the President said that the world congress was a historical event that showed the exploits of President Kim Il Sung and

General Secretary Kim Jong Il widely to the world and hoped that those Juche idea researchers would contribute to realizing the cause of anti-imperialism and independence through their more vigorous study and dissemination of the Juche idea in their respective countries.

Lecture Course on the Juche Idea:

Let Us Advance Study and Dissemination of Juche Idea with Our Own Efforts for People of Our Own

A lecture course on the Juche idea was held on April 16.

Lectures were delivered by IJJI Secretary General Ogami Ken-ichi and the following KASS's scholars: Ri Gang Sop, section chief; Mun Jong Suk, section chief and Ri Jong Hwa, researcher.

The IJJI Secretary General said:

“The Juche idea is the idea not only for the Korean people but also for the world people. For the Juche idea to become the idea for the world people, it is indispensable that the broad masses of the people in those individual countries of the world should be included in the ranks for the study and dissemination of this idea. Those Juche idea researchers in individual countries are required to have influence on the broad masses of the people in various walks of life and make this idea their faith as their own idea and turn this idea into the strength to transform their own countries, without contenting themselves in small number. As the masters of the study and dissemination of the Juche idea are ourselves, the Juche idea researchers throughout the world, it should be advanced by dint of our own efforts. ...Let us meet each other again after piling up more successes in our work, while making close contact with the IJJI.”

Being associated with the World Congress on the Juche Idea, a photo and book exhibition opened at the People's Palace of Culture in Pyongyang on April 10. The exhibition conveyed achievements made by President Kim Il Sung and General Secretary Kim Jong Il, the history of the study and dissemination of the Juche idea in individual countries and the revolutionary activities of First Secretary Kim Jong Un.
